

Leaders Schools

We invite you to invest in yourself, your leadership and your church or ministry, by attending one of our renowned Leaders Schools, and sending those you lead to do the same.

Trisha, Mark & Jane, and the Shiloh Place Team.

- The world needs the love of God, now more than ever. Leaders in the church and marketplace are uniquely placed to meet that need.
- These schools are designed to equip you to minister from a secure foundation in God's love, and to demonstrate the power of a godly identity to release leaders into their destiny.
- Strengthen leadership and character by building on a foundation of love, not performance.
- Loving, caring relationships with our team and other students. Our team have encountered God's transforming love and live to share what they have received with others.
- The motivation of our ministry is to serve you and those you serve.
- Life-giving teaching: to equip and inspire you. Over 300 leaders have graduated from these schools.
- Incomparable setting in a quiet residential area on one of the most appreciated sections of the Grand Strand. Peace, rest and comfort in the exceptional Island Vista Resort. All suites are oceanfront and most bedrooms are en-suite.

Graduates encourage you to attend:

"I thought I was attending a school to learn better counseling skills but actually I was encountering a timely message for my own life. Now I have far better insight into the lives of others and far more of the Father to offer them." Pastor Deana Kennedy

"This was the end of our journey of pain and the beginning of our journey of healing. The conflicts of life are less and less painful." Former senior leader in a national public policy ministry.

"I am in a new and exciting season of God's presence and love. The message of Experiencing Father's Embrace was the start of my journey home." Rev. Jack Stagman, President of Loudoun Church Alliance.

Outcomes:

Graduates return to their leadership roles with fresh vision and a deeper revelation of God's love.

This leads to a strong sense of security, and greater transparency in leaders' lives.

The primary beneficiaries of these changes are the leader's own family, and the changes also overflow into the lives of those the leader serves.

Prevent integrity issues by learning the causes and solutions for failure in ministry

Valuable teaching material, which can form the basis of your teaching ministry for many months. New teachings on entering His rest and living in the Kingdom of love have been added to our already successful syllabus.

Send your leadership team for maximum benefit to your church or organization.
